You know me like I wish I knew myself I see you on every ray of moonlight
You are like hospital lights
 I can't tell if I'm lost
You left me abandoned on a city bus
You took all of me and left none for me When wind blows,
 you are every howl
I saw you in every leaf's shadow and the stream of moonlight
You know me
 the moon watches over me as she knows all my secrets the moon watched over me as I left all of me as I gave all in whole as I was held by the warmth of your sweater.
