

Amir Omer

Graham Hill Elementary School | 5th Grade

The Things I Carry

I carry my family in my heart because I love them.

I carry my passport on the airplane so I can go on vacation.

I carry knowledge.

I carry memories in my heart because it reminds me who I am.

I carry water in my pocket when I need hydration.

I carry a book for comfort.

I carry food when I am hungry.

I carry my heart.

I carry my word because I am truthful.

I carry love when I am with my mom.

I carry love.

This broadside was created in celebration of Seattle Arts & Lectures' 2024-25 Writers in the Schools Year End Reading.
Putsata Reang was the supporting WITS writer in residence.