Directions to My Castle

Listen to the birds calling out your name,
take more time to let out all the shame.

My heart is made of gold but it is warm enough to not be cold.

Climb up the stairs, when people say you can't do it,
tell them you don't care!

On the outside, my heart tells me to cry.
But I'm smart enough to ask why.

Walk through the door. If your heart is broken, just know there's still more.

My tears are like rain, but it's okay,
I can seal the pain.

You've arrived, I'm super glad you survived!
