Pollution

Pollution,
Pollution is something
We have in our world,
And if we can't stop polluting,
Our planet, it's never going to survive,
Our planet will die, and we will be the killers,
Our beautiful home will be crushed,
Our planet. The one we drew when we were little,
The little circle with blue and green,
The little circle we're trashing,
The little circle we were born on, and where we will die if we don't Do something fast.
