Grief

Grief: By Maryn Burgess,

fun fact!

Don't ask people what they need. Many people have kindly called or texted with the question: "what can I do to help?" but often in the fog of grief or loss, it is really hard to know what you might need so we normally reply with: "thank's well let you know".

This broadside was created in celebration of Seattle Arts & Lectures' 2024-25 Writers in the Schools Year End Reading. Nhatt Nichols was the supporting WITS writer in residence.
