SEATTLE ARTS & LECTURES ANNOUNCES CONNIE WALKER'S EVENT HAS MOVED TO NEXT SEASON Q&A with Wudan Yan

Seattle, WA—MAY 5, 2022: Seattle Arts & Lectures (SAL) announced a date change for their event with Connie Walker. Due to unforeseen circumstances, Walker is postponing her event to Seattle. The event is rescheduled for SAL's 2022/23 Season, to be held on Monday, May 8, 2023, at 7:30 PM (PT). The event will be held in-person at Town Hall Seattle and also streamed online. The Q&A will be moderated by journalist Wudan Yan.

In her podcasts Stolen and Missing & Murdered, Connie Walker investigates cases of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls. In seeking to unravel the mysterious disappearance of Jermain Charlo—a young Indigenous mother who left a bar in Missoula, Montana, in 2018 and was never seen again—Walker's work examines more broadly what it means to be an Indigenous woman in America.

Wudan Yan, SAL's Q&A moderator for the evening, is an independent journalist based in Seattle. She writes about science and society for The Atlantic, High Country News, MIT Technology Review, New York Magazine, the New York Times, and others. Learn more.

Additional single tickets will go on sale at 10 a.m. (PT) on August 8, 2022, available at lectures.org or by calling the SAL Box Office at 206.621.2230, ext. 10.
