

HUTCH SCHOOL | KINDERGARTEN

A RIDDLE POEM

SEBASTIAN LIN

I am very big but not wonderful
I keep collapsing on myself
I begin to absorb everything to become part of me
I have the most matter
but I'm still a mystery;
there is more to be discovered.