ESME HENLEY

BIG PICTURE SCHOOL | 6TH GRADE

My family is from Benin, West Africa. I connect with my dad's side more than my mom's. My home is in Washington, but emotionally, my home is in Chicago. We always go to Chicago in the summer. When we go to Chicago, we first visit my grandma Diane's house. I smell fried chicken and fried mac and cheese, and 2000s art is on the walls. And hear Tupac music in the backyard. Understanding, time, life, the feeling of safety. Those are the feelings that I feel in my grandma's house.

This broadside was created in celebration of Seattle Arts & Lectures' Writers in the Schools (WITS) program's Year End Reading. It was written at Big Picture School during the 2022-23 school year with WITS Writer-in-Residence, Putsata Reang.
