SAL has long wanted to fulfill the dream of inviting community members to share in the curation of our programming, so we took this moment to replace the Hinge Series with the Community Curated Series, launching in our FY22 season. The work on this series began last year, which is why it shows up on our financial statements, but the series was launched as part of our 2021/22 Season. The first guest curator is Ijeoma Oluo and the series has been enthusiastically received by the community.

Form 990, Part III, Line 3 - Ceased Conducting or Significant Changes To Services

Our Hinge Series was begun a few years ago with the intention of ensuring that some of our programming had a low enough price point to be accessible to a broader section of our community. We have since been expanding our accessibly priced ticketing to be part of all of our programming and have therefore somewhat nullified the need for the Hinge program to exist. There were no events scheduled under this series in the FY21 year, partly due to circumstance and partly because it didn't have a clear purpose anymore.

The YPL Program aims

The original compensation range for executive director compensation in similar sized organizations was provided and confirmed by Koya Partners, the national search firm engaged for the most recent Executive Director search in 2021. It reflected their primary research and compensation data subscription research at the time of the posting. In the ensuing six months of the search process, non-profit leadership compensation ranges have increased 7% - 15% depending on situation and location.
