

Reasons I Love Dogs

SANIAA WELLS

SEATTLE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL | AGE 10

Calm dogs, therapy dogs.
They can make you calm when you're sad.
They can cuddle with you.
They can bring joy into your life.
They can go to places that dogs usually aren't allowed to go to,
but because they're therapy dogs, they're allowed to go.

Then there are service dogs.
They help you when you're ill.
They help you when you cannot walk or you are injured.
They help you cross the sidewalk if you're blind.
And they stay by your side no matter what.

And that's why I love dogs!

This broadside was created in celebration of Seattle Arts & Lectures' Writers in the Schools (WITS) program's Year End Reading. It was written at Seattle Children's Hospital during the 2022-23 school year with WITS Writer-in-Residence, Sierra Nelson.
